Instructions

What kind of reasonable accommodation for religious practices could management offer to an employee in a situation where reassignment to a less visible work setting is impossible – for example, when the employee is a National Basketball Association (NBA) player? This paper only needs to be half a page in length.